

The Three Selves: “Who’s Showing Up?”

All Three “Selves” are present with us. It is like a dance where we are moving in and out of these selves depending on the circumstances. God’s sanctifying work within us is a progressive process of laying aside the false self, that we might experience God in our human condition and increasingly be transformed into the true self – the new creation in Christ. As you consider the Three Selves consider key relationships and circumstances and identify “Who is Showing Up?” in these areas of your life. Make note below what you are aware of, identifying ways in which you show up in these Three Selves.

Be encouraged – God has covered your journey with His Grace and Mercy. Love covers it all.

“Who’s Showing Up?”

The False Self

The Broken Self

The True Self

