

I AM CEREMONY INTRODUCTION

TIMING: Sunday afternoon, after Putting the Truth on the Bags

EXPECTATION: This introduction should be fully memorized

PURPOSE: to celebrate each individual woman's work

ENERGY: strong, celebratory

"Sisters, you have worked really hard this weekend, discovering wonderful truths about yourselves and God. We are now going to take this opportunity to continue to celebrate and anchor these truths into your hearts and minds. In a moment we are going to call each group up one at a time. We'll take a group photo, and then one at a time your group leader will speak your "I am" statements over you. Everyone will hold their applause until all 3 statements are spoken, then we'll all shout "Yes, You are!" and give wild and extravagant support.

Green Team Leader then invites all the Small Group Leaders to come forward and line up at the front of the room. Optional, you can have a photo taken of Green Team Lead and all the small group leaders if you want.
